EIT Urban Mobility Specific KPIs – Status February 2021

Disclaimer: Subject to changes in line with the formal finalization of the Strategic Agenda and the Impact Framework by end of March 2021

KPI code	KPI name	Description
KSN01	# Innovation pilot scaling	The number of innovation products and/or processes (not below Technical Readiness Level TRL-4) that have completed testing / demonstration with end users and prove to be successfully implemented beyond the KAVA activities, are ready for scaling. Scaling means expansion to wider scale application (more people reached within same location) and/or introduction in a new

		location (other places within the same municipality, other cities/regions in Europe or worldwide). An innovation is defined as: ‘An idea, practice or object that is perceived as new by an individual or other unit of adoption in the place that it is implemented. Innovations need to integrate into the context in order to be economically successful and provide societal impact. EIT Urban Mobility focuses on technological and social innovations that contribute to green, safe and inclusive mobility solutions for people and goods (SO3), e.g.: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Deploy and uptake of new modes of transport which encourages a modal shift to new mobility services ; Improve the user experience for people (individual mobility, public transport, shared mobility); • Optimise and improve city logistics operations for last-mile deliveries; Engage citizens, users and other stakeholders to stimulate behavioural change, and accelerate the adoption of new mobility solutions and regulations as a result of the activity.
KSN02	# Demonstrations/ pilots/ living labs within a project that actively involve citizens and/or local associations	Actively engaged an appropriate amount of citizens/community representatives of various age and social groups in running a demonstration/successful pilot/living lab* to encourage experimentation, research and the development of solutions to city challenges and issues; and, where relevant: Mobilised local citizen associations and community groups to help maximise reach out to citizens. The aim is to ensure acceptance of measures, raise awareness for opportunities or restrictions that come with measure implementation, and enhance ownership of measures. *Living labs are defined as user-centred, open innovation ecosystems based on a systematic user co-creation approach integrating research and innovation processes in real life communities and settings. Living labs place the citizen at the centre of innovation.
KSN03	# Public realm improvements	The number of successful single interventions directly implemented by the activity focused on public realm improvements, in line with SO1 “Create liveable urban spaces”. Public realm is a platform for life with a diversity of urban functions to live, work, shop, relax, encounter and play, commonly defined as all areas between buildings including streets, boulevards and open squares that are accessible to the public.

		Improvements for the diversity of individual users (citizens, customers, visitors, tourists etc. incl. young and elderly, mobility impaired and diverse gender/roles) within the common urban space specifically address: giving more space to pedestrians and cyclists, reducing car ownership/dependency, improved routes, multi-modal options, efficient public transport, streets greening and expansion of the tree canopy, parklets (reusing parking space and creating real opportunities for people to meet), new street lighting, new greenery, waste collection, improved directions for visitors, etc. This KPI includes both: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) small-scale and temporary changes, using low-cost and scalable interventions, as the first step in informing long-term systemic change, and b) permanent investment as part of a public realm action plan and/or a walking and cycling strategy, and/or parking interventions
